Bilateral Agreement

2014-08-01

There is a bilateral agreement in place between Protect-o-Burn North America and Protect-o-Burn South Africa.

Jaco du Plessis is the original founder of Protect-o-Burn South Africa (Pty) Ltd from which Protect-o-Burn North America LLC was established.

Headquarters

With Jaco du Plessis expanding the Protect-o-Burn global footprint, it has been agreed that Protect-o-Burn North America LLC will be the global headquarters for Protect-o-Burn, head-quartered in Texas USA.

In conjunction with Protect-o-Burn South Africa decisions will be made as to where else in the world and with whom additional franchises or partnerships will be setup.

Product development in various sector/s will take place at Protect-o-Burn HQ under the auspice of Jaco du Plessis.

South Africa will continue to focus primarily on the development of fire protection solutions for the mining industry. Progress in all fields is shared between the 2 countries.

Manufacturing and technical support

Manufacturing or on-site fabrication and installation can be carried out by either South Africa or the USA depending on the project location, budget and availability.

Skilled labor between South Africa and USA can be shared

Training can be presented by either the USA or South Africa for various key applications. In the same way maintenance can be carried out by either country.
